Jupiter Marina Hotel embraced the challenge of transforming the Old Can Factory, Facho, into a new 4 Star Hotel, symbol of Portimão's touristic rebirth and a reason of pride among its people.

Located in the most scenic part of town and with exclusive views over the Arade River, we drank entirely from the Boho-Chic Lifestyle and R.U.A. concept as inspiration, materialized in the ultimate combination of pastel shades with Monchique's patterns and textures, Arade's indigo blue, and last but not least, Algarve's coastline gold, all articulated and thought to the smallest detail.

CITY HOST - PORTIMÃO

Portimão is the largest city in the western Algarve, and was traditionally a centre for shipbuilding, sardine fishing and fish processing. Today, most of that industry has been replaced by tourism, leisure, and retail, leaving Portimão as a large and residential city.

Praia da Rocha - Portimão

The city's old and once bustling fishing docks have been responsibly transformed into a scenic promenade, leading to the quaint and tree-lined plazas of the old town. Further inland are pleasant pedestrian shopping streets, a series of historic buildings, and a varied selection of cafes, bars, and restaurants specialising in freshly cooked seafood.
